

Additional Info:

The deepest part of the pond about 25 feet from the north west edge of the dam. The deepest point of the dam is about 18' at full capacity. Pond stocked with Crappie, Bluegill, Bass, and a few White Amur (grass carp).

The nut and fruit trees include Black Walnut, Chestnut, Pecan, PawPaw, Persimmon, Apricot, Wild Cherry, grape vines, four different kinds of Oak, White Ash, onion patch, and remnants of the Christmas tree farm that was on the west side of the property.

The path north of the barn will lead to the bridge over the creek to the back pasture. There are two other mowed path in and along the tree line. Access to the back pasture is also accessible by Iowa Ave on the west side of the property.