3. Initial Capital Assessment. The Declarant has established a one-time, initial capital assessment to be levied upon each Homesite and to be paid at the time the Homesite is purchased from the Declarant. Such assessment may be used by Declarant to maintain the roads and common areas within the Properties prior to turning over control of the Association to the Members. This assessment is not subject to the Association lien rights provided in Article XII hereof.

4. Assessments Levied Pro Rata. All Assessments levied by the Association, whether annual or special, shall be on the basis of one (1) share per Homesite so each owner of a Homesite shall bear an equal pro rata share of the expenses of the Association.

Said lien may be enforced by the Association by foreclosure suit in the same manner as a mortgage or construction lien foreclosure or in such other manner as may be permitted by law. In the event the Association files a Claim of Lien against any Homesite, it shall be entitled to recover from the owner of such Homesite the aforesaid interest and late charge and all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, paralegals' fees and legal assistants' fees (including those incurred for appellate proceedings) incurred in preparing, filing and/or foreclosing the Claim of Lien, and all such costs, late charges, interest and fees shall be secured by said lien.
3. Priority of Lien. The lien of the Assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any mortgage recorded prior to the recording of a Claim of Lien. The sale or transfer of a Homesite pursuant to the foreclosure of such a prior recorded mortgage or any proceeding in lieu thereof shall extinguish the lien of such Assessment as to payments which became due prior to such sale or transfer and such payments shall be collectible from the owners of all Homesites in the same manner as any other regular Assessment. No sale or transfer shall relieve such Homesite from liability for any Assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

Such costs shall include reasonable attorneys' fees, paralegals' fees and legal assistants' fees, including such fees for appellate proceedings, incurred by Declarant or the Association but not attorneys' fees incurred by any Member in bringing an action against another Member. So long as Declarant still owns property described in this Declaration for development as part of the Properties, the Declarant may unilaterally amend this Declaration for any other purpose, provided the amendment has no material adverse effect upon any right of any Member. Hereafter or otherwise, this Declaration may be amended only by the affirmative vote or written consent, or any combination thereof, of Members representing sixty-seven percent (67%) of the total votes in the Association. All amendments shall be accomplished by the recordation in the Public Records of Lincoln County of an amendatory instrument.

7. Declarant's Rights. The Declarant and its successors or assigns will undertake the work of constructing residences and related amenities on the Homesites and improvements on the Common areas. The completion of that work and the sale, rental and other disposal of Homesites is essential to the establishment and welfare of Properties as a community. As used in this Section and its subparagraphs, the words "its successors or assigns" specifically do not include purchasers of completed Homesites. In order that said work may be completed and the Properties established as a fully occupied community as rapidly as possible, no Member or the Association shall do anything to interfere with the Declarant's activities. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, nothing in this Declaration or the Articles or By-Laws shall be understood or construed to:

- (f) The Declarant expressly reserves the right to grant easements and rights-of-way over, under and through the Common Areas so long as the Declarant owns any property in the Properties; provided, no such easement shall structurally weaken or otherwise interfere with the use of the Common Area by the Members and provided no such easement or right-of-way is violative of the terms and provisions of any Conservation Easement or any District permits, rules or regulations.
- (g) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in the Declaration to the contrary, so long as construction and initial sale of Home sites shall continue, it shall be expressly permissible for Declarant to maintain and carry on upon portions of the Common Area and Homesites owned by Declarant such facilities and activities as, in the sole opinion of Declarant, may be reasonably required, convenient, or incidental to the construction or sale of Home sites, including, but not limited to, business offices, signs, model units, and sales offices, and the Declarant shall have an easement for access to such facilities. Each Member on behalf of such Member's heirs, personal representatives, successors, mortgagees, lienors and assigns agrees the development, construction and completion of the balance of the Properties may interfere with such Member's original and existing views, light and air and diminish the same and each such Member on such Member's behalf and on behalf of such Member's heirs, assigns, personal representatives, successors, mortgagees, lienors and assigns does hereby release the Declarant and its successors in interest and others involved from all claims they may have in connection therewith.

8. Litigation. No judicial or administrative proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted by the Association unless approved by a vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Members, inclusive of the Declarant. This Section shall not apply, however, to (a) actions brought by the Association against parties other than the Declarant to enforce the provisions of this Declaration (including, without limitation, the foreclosure of liens), (b) the imposition and collection of Assessments as provided herein, (c) proceedings involving challenges to ad valorem taxation, or (d) counterclaims brought by the Association in proceedings instituted against it. Any right to indemnification provided for herein shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any officer, director, or committee member, or former officer, director, or committee member may be entitled. The Association shall, as a common expense, maintain adequate general liability and officers' and directors' liability insurance to fund this obligation, if such insurance is reasonably available.
