2. The Covenants are necessary and desirable to establish a uniform plan for the development and use of the Subdivision for the benefit of all Owners. The Covenants run with the land and bind all Owners, occupants, and any other person holding an interest in a Lot.

3. Each Owner and occupant of a Lot agrees to comply with the Dedicatory Instruments and agrees that failure to comply may subject him to a fine, an action for amounts due to the Property Owners Association, damages, or injunctive relief.

B. Plat and Easements

3. Membership and Voting Rights. Every Owner, other than an Owner of Lots 10 through 13 of the Subdivision, is a Member of the Property Owners Association. Membership is appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of a Lot. The Property Owners Association has two classes of voting Members:

a. Class A. Class A Members are all Owners, other than Declarant. Class A Members have one (1) vote per Lot. When more than one person is an Owner, each is a Class A Member, but only one (1) vote may be cast for a Lot.

b. Class B. The Class B Member is Declarant and has three (3) number of votes for each Lot owned specified in the Bylaws. The Class B Membership ceases and converts to Class A Membership on the earlier of –

- e. No Liability. The Property Owners Association, the Board, the ACC, and their members will not be liable to any person submitting requests for approval or to any Owner by reason of any action, failure to act, approval, disapproval, or failure to approve or disapprove any request.

G. Assessments

1. Authority. The Property Owners Association may levy Assessments to promote the recreation, health, safety, and welfare of the residents in the Subdivision, to fund operating expenses of the Property Owners Association, and to improve and maintain the Common Areas.

2. Personal Obligation. An Assessment is a personal obligation of each Owner when the Assessment accrues.

3. Creation of Lien. Assessments are secured by a continuing vendor's lien on each Lot, which lien is reserved by Declarant and hereby assigned to the Property Owners Association. By acceptance of a deed to a Lot, each Owner grants the lien, together with the power of sale, to the Property Owners Association to secure Assessments.

4. Commencement. A Lot becomes subject to Assessments on conveyance of the Lot by Declarant.

5. Regular Assessments

- a. Rate. Regular Assessments are levied annually by the Board to fund the anticipated operating and maintenance expenses of the Property Owners Association. Until changed by the Board, the Regular Assessment is $125.00.

6. Special Assessments. In addition to the Regular Assessments, the Board may levy Special Assessments for the purpose of funding the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair, or replacement of any capital improvement on the Common Area or for any other purpose benefitting the Subdivision but requiring funds exceeding those available from the Regular Assessments. Special Assessments must be approved by the Members. Written notice of the terms of the Special Assessment will be sent to every Owner.

9. Subordination of Lien to Mortgages. The lien granted and reserved to the Property Owners Association is subordinate to any lien granted by an Owner against a Lot not prohibited by the Texas Constitution. The foreclosure of a superior lien extinguishes the Property Owners Association's lien as to Assessments due before the foreclosure.

10. Delinquent Assessments. Any Assessment not paid within sixty (60) days after it is due is delinquent.

H. Remedial Rights

1. Late Charges and Interest. A late charge of an amount to be determine is assessed for delinquent payments. The Board may change the late charge and any interest rate charged.

3. Judicial Enforcement. The Property Owners Association may bring an action against an Owner to collect delinquent Assessments, foreclose the Property Owners Association's lien, or enforce or enjoin a violation of the Dedicatory Instruments. An Owner may bring an action against another Owner to enforce or enjoin a violation of the Dedicatory Instruments.

4. Remedy of Violations. The Property Owners Association may levy a fine against an Owner for a violation of the Dedicatory Instruments.

I. Common Area

1. Common Area Easements. Each Owner has an easement in and to the Common Area, if any, subject to the right of the Property Owners Association to -

b. suspend an Owner's rights to use a Common Area under the Dedicatory Instruments;

c. grant an easement approved by the Board over the Common Area for utility, drainage, or other purposes; and

d. dedicate or convey any of the Common Area for public purposes, on approval by a vote of majority of the Members of the Members at a meeting in accordance with the Bylaws.

2. Permitted Users. An Owner's right to use and enjoy the Common Area extends to the Owner's family, guests, agents, and invitees, subject to the Dedicatory Instruments.

3. Unauthorized Improvements in Common Area. An Owner may not erect or alter any Structure on, or clear, landscape, or disturb, any Common Area except as approved by the Board.

J. General Provisions

1. Term. This Declaration runs with the land and is binding in perpetuity.

2. No Waiver. Failure by the Property Owners Association or an Owner to enforce the Dedicatory Instruments is not a waiver.

3. Corrections. The Board may correct typographical or grammatical errors, ambiguities, or inconsistencies contained in this Declaration, provided that any correction must not impair or affect a vested property right of any Owner.

4. Amendment. This Declaration may be amended at any time by vote of 67 percent of Owners entitled to vote on the amendment. An instrument containing the approved amendment will be signed by the Property Owners Association and recorded.

5. Conflict. This Declaration controls over the other Dedicatory Instruments.

6. Severability. If a provision of this Declaration is unenforceable for any reason, to the extent the unenforceability does not destroy the basis of the bargain among the parties, the unenforceability does not affect any other provision of this Declaration.

7. Notices. All notices must be in writing and must be given as required or permitted by the Dedicatory Instruments or by law. Notice by mail is deemed delivered (whether actually received or not) when properly deposited with the United States Postal Service, addressed (a) to a Member, at the Member's last known address according to the Property Owners Association's records, and (b) to the Property Owners Association, the Board, the ACC, or a managing agent at the Property Owners Association's principal office or another address designated in a notice to the Members. Unless otherwise required by law or the Dedicatory Instruments, actual notice, however delivered, is sufficient.

8. Annexation of Additional Property. On written approval of the Board and not less than sixty-seven percent (67%) of the Members at a meeting in accordance with the Bylaws, the owner of any property who desires to subject the property to this Declaration may record an annexation agreement that will impose this Declaration and the Covenants on that property.

All assessments by the Property Owners Association to be paid by the Owners as Members in the Association, are subordinate to all valid recorded liens that are legal according to the Texas Constitution and statutes concerning attachment to residential property, and use the property as monetary security.
